Will Sell Programs for Charity Performance to Help Library.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. SOUTHAMPTON, L. I., Aug. 28.—According to the present outlook nothing an interfere with the success of the special performance in the success of the special performance in the Parrish Mu-seum garden of Balleff's "Chauve-Souris" next Sunday night but weather, as the sale has been far ahead of any-thing hoped. Should there be a storm the performance will be given some-where else.

the performance will be given somewhere else.

Interest in the performance, which will be for the benefit of the Roger's Alemorial Library, is not confined to the summer colony as the permanent residents of Southampton, to whom the library is a great benefit, are helping as far as they can the filinancial success of the undertaking.

It is expected that a good sum will be netted from the sale of the souvenir Frograms, which will be artistic reminders of the event and Mrs. Goodhue Livingston, Jr., will be at the head of a coops of young women who will sell them. Among her assistants will be Misses Clara and Helen Lee, Cornella Livingston, Jean and Charlotte Potter, Petty Hammill, Caroline and Kate Prentice, Priscilla Allen, Ellin Mackay, Josephine Dodge and Florence Earle Johnson. The programs will be printed in color.
